2009 SBA North Carolina Small Business Person of the Year

Any individual who owns and operates or who bears principal responsibility for operating a small business may be nominated. Partners who jointly own and operate a small business may be nominated as a “team,” so long as the number of individuals in the team nomination does not exceed four. A nominee for Small Business Person of the Year must own or operate a business defined as “small” under the applicable SBA size standards. Individuals who have received the small business person award at the state level within the past five years are not eligible. Nominees must also be residents of the United States or its territories and will be subject to background checks. Small businesses owned and operated by nominees must comply with federal civil rights laws. While receipt of SBA assistance is not required, it is preferred.

In evaluating the nomination packages, the judges will look at the following criteria:

1. Staying power — a substantiated history as an established business; including:
 - Number of years in business.
 - Sustained expansion, addition of territories, growth in square footage occupied.
 - Steady growth in net worth as evidenced by total assets less total liabilities on fiscal year end annual balance sheets over three years.
2. Growth in number of employees — a benchmark to judge the impact of the business on the job market.
 - Sustained over a minimum of three years.
 - Increase over the three years must be in excesses of growth in Gross National Product.
3. Increase in sales and/or unit volume — an indication of continued growth over the last three years.
 - Consistent growth in net income as evidenced by fiscal year annual profit-and-loss statements for a minimum of three years.
4. Current and past financial performance — financial reports substantiate an improved financial position of the business.
 - Profit-and-loss statements for the last three years, reflecting sustained upward growth.
 - Balance sheets for the last three years, showing consistent increase in net worth and/or partners’ return.
5. Innovativeness of product or service offered — an illustration of the creativity and imagination of the nominee.
 - Specific description of uniqueness of product or service.
 - Explanation of how product or service fits a niche not being adequately addressed by the competition.
6. Response to adversity — examples of problems faced in the nominee’s business and the methods used to solve them, including:
 - Specific description of financial, physical, legal or other crisis.
 - Substantiation of the threat to the continuity of the business.
 - Defined actions taken by the nominee to resolve the crisis.
7. Contributions to community-oriented projects — evidence of the use of his/her personal time and resources, including:
 - Listing of specific contributions of money, time, or resources to charitable causes.
 - Membership in councils, boards and clubs providing support and services to the community.

NOTICES REQUIRED BY LAW

Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.)

SBA will use the information collected on this form, along with other information submitted by award nominees, to determine the nominee's eligibility for a particular small business award; to identify any actual or apparent conflict of interest and, to make eventual award determinations.

The estimated burden for completing this form is 15 minutes per response. However, the total estimated time for completing the nomination package, including the time for reviewing the instructions, gathering and compiling data, and completing the package is 2 hours. You are not required to respond to any collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Comments on these burden estimates should be sent to the U.S. Small Business Administration, Chief, AIB 409 3rd St., SW, Washington, DC 20416, and Desk Officer for the U.S. Small Business Administration, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Room 10202, Washington, DC 20503. DO NOT SEND FORMS TO OMB.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. § 552a)

Any person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in his or her file when that file is retrieved by individual identifiers, such as name or social security number. SBA will protect an individual's personal information to the extent permitted by law, including the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. However, as a routine matter information collected may be disclosed as follows: (a) to the news media for public disclosure of the name, address, and biography of award recipients; (b) to communicate with State and local governments about the status of a particular nominee; (c) to an individual nominee's Congressional office when that office is inquiring on the individual's behalf; (d) to Agency volunteers, interns, judges, experts and contractors who need access to the records in order to perform an award related activity; and (e) to the Department of Justice (DOJ); the court, adjudicative body, or a dispute resolution body when any of the following is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation:

- (1) The agency or any of its components;
- (2) An agency employee in his or her official capacity;
- (3) An agency employee in his or her individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or
- (4) The United States Government, where the agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the agency or any of its components.

Before making any disclosures SBA must determine that the use of the records is relevant and necessary to the litigation, and disclosure of the records is for a purpose that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

Additional information regarding the retention and disclosure of this collection of information is listed in the systems of record notice published in the Federal Register at 69 FR 58597, 58624 (9/30/2004).
